Camp Peekskill point, October 23. 1782.

Sir

I have to request the favor, that you will be so obliging as to inform me what number of depreciation notes have been given by the treasurer of the commonwealth of Massachusetts to noncommissioned officers and privates in the regiment commanded by general Hazen, who are considered as belonging to the quota of Massachusetts. Please address your answer to me, or the senior officer present of the Massachusetts line.

I have the honor to be

With great regard, Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

W Heath

Major General

The Treasurer of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.
